

Prof. John IOANNIDIS, USA

John P.A. Ioannidis, MD, DSc is Professor of Medicine, of Epidemiology and Population Health, and (by courtesy) of Biomedical Data Science and Co-Director, Meta-Research Innovation Center at Stanford (METRICS) at Stanford University. He has served as President of the Association of American Physicians and has won many awards, including the European Award for Excellence in Clinical Science [2007], Medal for Distinguished Service, Teachers College, Columbia U [2015], Chanchlani Global Health Award [2017], Epiphany Science Courage Award [2018], Einstein fellow [2018], Gordon award [2019], Albert Stuyvenberg Medal (2021), Harwood Prize [2022], Blake Award (2024), Founders' Medal for MAER-Net (2024)). He has been inducted in Association of American Physicians (2009), European Academy of Cancer Sciences (2010) American Epidemiological Society (2015), European Academy of Sciences and Arts (2015), US National Academy of Medicine (2018), Accademia delle Scienze (Bologna) (2021) and has received honorary doctorates from Erasmus University Rotterdam, University of Athens, University of Tilburg, University of Edinburgh, Aristotle University of Thessaloniki and McMaster University.