

Ms. Anne CHEVRIER, France

Former Hospital Chief Financial Officer and Head of Certification for Health Care Organizations

Long (28 years) experience as hospital chief financial Officer and Head of biomedical Department

High level management position in the French government health authorities (Project Director at the Ministry of Health and Head of the certification Department at the High Authority for health)

Leadership, executive management, change management, organizational restructuring.

Extensive knowledge of quality improvement procedures in health establishments

First-hand experience of developing and implementing of the certification process

Contribution to international accreditation with ISQUa

Solid experience in finance

Biomedical engineer: expertise in scientific and medical projects organization

Strength of conviction, listening skills and vision

MAJOR PROJECTS

Steering the overhaul of the certification system for health facilities in consultation with representatives of health facilities, user representatives and professional stakeholders.

Deployment of the new certification system to all French institutions: 2470 procedures.

Monitoring and deployment of the National Rare Disease Plan (PNMR): operational coordination of the PNMR3, management of the 2017-2022 call for projects for the labelling of rare disease reference centers, ministerial interlocutor for inter-institutional cooperation and patient associations, coordination of rare disease sectors, representative of the Ministry of Health at the European Commission for Rare Diseases.