

Dr. Gearóid McGAURAN, Ireland

Dr. Gearóid McGauran is a Medical Officer in the Health Products Regulatory Authority (HPRA), the national competent authority for medical devices in Ireland. Gearóid has a background in general paediatrics and neonatology and is a Member of the Royal College of Physicians of Ireland (RCPI) Faculty of Paediatrics. He has a bachelor's degree in medicine from University College Dublin and a master's degree in advanced healthcare practice and research from the University of Galway. Gearóid is a member of the MDCG Clinical Investigation and Evaluation (CIE) Working Group and the MDCG Orphan Device Taskforce, where he is leader of the group developing EU guidance on the clinical evaluation of orphan devices. Gearóid is a member of the CORE-MD research consortium and ISO technical committees TC/150 (implants for surgery) and TC/194 (biological and clinical evaluation of medical devices) and is an external expert for the European Medicines Agency (EMA).