

Radoslaw PARMA MD PhD, Poland

Interventional Cardiologist at GCM, Katowice, Poland

My 20-year dedication to interventional cardiology focuses on minimally invasive coronary, stroke and structural heart disease procedures. I am committed to advancing novel technology adoption and improving patient outcomes in cardiovascular diseases.

Current Roles:

Expert Panel Member on Medical Devices, European Commission – European Medicines Agency (since 2020).
Chair, EAPCI Training and Certification Committee, European Society of Cardiology (since 2022).

Previous Contributions:

Education and Fellowship Grants Committee Member, European Association of Percutaneous Interventions (2018-2022).
Secretary and Board Member, Polish Cardiac Society Association of Cardiovascular Interventions (2013-2017).

Memberships:

Fellow of the European Society of Cardiology (FESC) since 2023
Fellow of the Society for Cardiovascular Angiography & Interventions (FSCAI) since 2023
National Interventional Cardiology Society Member: Poland, Italy, Germany, United Kingdom, United States

Education

Ischaemic stroke endovascular operator 2019, TAVI operator 2008, PCI operator 2005
Radiology training 2018, Cardiology 2012, PhD 2007, MD 2001

Focus Areas:

Transcatheter Aortic Valve Implantations (TAVI): Redo TAVI, Bicuspid Aortic Valve
Percutaneous Coronary Interventions (PCI),
Acute Ischaemic Stroke Endovascular Therapy (EVT)
Computed Tomography analysis
Augmented Reality, Mixed Reality applications
Interventional Cardiology Education & Training