

Cardiovascular Disease Statistics

Premature Deaths

Cardiovascular disease is the world's biggest killer. Cardiovascular diseases are also responsible for a large proportion of premature mortality. More precisely, they account for 27% and 31% deaths before the age of 70 in Europe, in females and males respectively

For more data on cardiovascular disease consult ESC Atlas

www.escardio.org/atlas